Atlantic Beach, FL – Award-winning actor Jason Woods brings his solo Off-Broadway production of Bing!, formerly known as The Near Disaster of Jasper & Casper, to Gulliford Hall at the Adele Grage Cultural Center in Atlantic Beach, Florida for a three-month (one Thursday each month) residency beginning April 25. Tickets ($29) will only be sold in advance (no tickets sold at the door) and are on sale now at buytickets.at/jasonwoodsproductions.

Jasper is looking for his true family and discovers a blunt witch, a mysterious, articulate dragon, and a purpose he never expected. As Jasper gets closer to the truth, he confronts his own fears, a vicious queen, his brother Casper's self-obsession, and a heartbreaking path to his own destiny.

Written and performed by Jason Woods, Bing! captivated New York audiences and critics and received a 2023 Off-Broadway Alliance Award nomination for Best Solo Show. Woods morphs into Jasper, Casper, the Witch, the Ghost, the Dragon, the Herald, the Henchman, the Witch's

Mother, and more with rapid-fire dexterity and heartfelt authenticity in this razor-sharp magical comedy about family and fantasy, and the lines we blur with both.

Jason Woods is an award-winning actor with rave reviews for his Off-Broadway run of Bing!, New York, 2022. As a producer, he has created original works for over 12 years for the stage and film. An autodidact, he writes, directs, and composes all the orchestral music for his productions which include Peter Pan: A New Musical, The Wind in the Willows, A Christmas Carol, and Alice in a Christmas Wonderland. For a select few of his creations, he serves all these positions as well as actor, playing over 20 roles in A Christmas Carol, and nine in Bing!. If there is a word that describes his intentions in art and exchange with the audience, that word is simply...TRANSFORMATION.
